

WASHINGTON NEWS - GOSSIP

By CHARLES BROOKS SMITH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.—Equip the new constabulary organization in West Virginia, the man entrusted with getting it equipped and started, is looking to the Federal Government as a market in which he can buy more cheaply than elsewhere such articles as cloth for uniforms, harness, saddles, bridles, etc. Senator Sutherland has made the arrangements with the government officials here, those at the offices of the Director of Sales for the War department, for Superintendent Jackson Arnold, of the Constabulary, to open up negotiations either in person or by writing. It is most probable, however, that Supt. Arnold will come to Washington in person, as that would be the most satisfactory and speedier way to conduct the negotiations and make the deal.

After two weeks spent in the Capital and at the government warehouse at Newport News, Va., Dr. G. T. Epling has returned to his home at Welch. The doctor got what he came for, which was access to army dental supplies, and their purchase at a minimum cost. It wasn't an easy thing to do. At first the officials seemed to oppose, notwithstanding that the equipment desired was for the innovation that McDowell county has embarked upon—a free dental clinic for the 20,000 children of that county up to and including the age of 16. By referendum the taxpayers of McDowell levied $50,000 in taxes on themselves, after securing authority from the Legislature. Had not Dr. Epling been successful in getting all the equipment necessary to start the clinic from the War department—equipment that was used during the war at home and abroad—it would have taken the bigger part of the $50,000 appropriated to buy it from private dealers. The success of Dr. Epling, therefore, means a big thing to the people of McDowell.

In his quest here, Dr. Epling had the active and sincere cooperation of Senators Sutherland and Elkins, and Representative Goodykoontz. But those who are familiar with this case know that that fact should not lessen the praise and credit that the McDowell county visitor should receive. It was the determined, patient, "stick-to-itiveness" of Epling that overrode all obstacles and government red-tape (and there was a lot of it to contend with). He just wouldn't give up and, against all official opposition with which he met during the first half of his visit, he finally won out. He was finally given carte blanche authority to visit a government war house at Newport News and pick out what he wanted. Nor was he restrained by any embarrassment in making his selections. They were the best and ample. The result is that McDowell county's free dental clinic is to be fully and finely equipped at an expense that is trivial compared to what such an equipment would cost at the places of private dealers and manufacturers. When it comes to getting what he wants when he wants it, the West Virginians in Washington doff their hats to "Doc" Epling in a figurative sense, of course. They admire his bull-dog tenacity, his patient, unflinching diplomacy, his quiet and effective manner, and his smile that smiles on "smilers" in the face of refusals. They liked the way he "worked." It was an outstanding case of the brilliancy of a rare gem, among many.

The free dental clinic is absolutely a new thing in West Virginia. Some of the largest cities have had it for several years. No community in the United States has undertaken it with the county as a basis. The idea took root in McDowell county from the time that two big coal corporations there undertook to look after the teeth of the children of their employees. They paid all the expenses. Not only were the teeth of the children put in order and kept in order, but dental hygiene was taught parents as well as children. The results were so successful that the people of McDowell decided it would be a good thing to carry the good work to all the children of the county, and that is what is to be done. When the citizens voted to do this, the vote was practically unanimous.

The theory is, of course, that good, sound teeth are the basis of good health, good morals, normal mentality, especially in the case of the developing child. Preservation in a healthful state of the child's first teeth is a guarantee of a strong, healthy second set. The first work of the McDowell county clinic will be done by trained dental nurses, who will visit the homes and the schools, chart the teeth, cleanse them, take a full and complete history of the case itself, not only the condition of the teeth, etc., but noting many other things about the child's history, condition generally, etc. All of this information will be not down on a form card. After a case is "closed," it will not be inspected for six months. Every case will be inspected every six months until the child passes the age of 16. Dr. Epling will have nine expert dentists associated with him and under his direction, and half-dozen trained dental nurses, whom he has trained himself. This number will be increased. The first year of the free clinic is expected to be the hardest. Making the teeth of 20,000 school children sound and healthy is considered a big job, but Dr. Epling says it isn't too big a job to tackle and to do.

There are two automobiles that are being very usefully employed this summer, while the Elkins family is at their Randolph county home, "Hallehurst." Also two chauffeurs are cheerfully doing a good work. These two machines, one of them owned by Senator Davis Elkins and the other by his mother, are at the service of the wounded soldier boys out at the big Walter Reed hospital. Day and evening, they are doing good work, taking a load of the brave fellows out into the cool air of the country, away from the heat of the city and the gloom of the big hospital community which sticks about there, no matter how much is done (and a great deal is done by hundreds of kind-hearted and appreciative civilians) to dispel it. When Senator Elkins rides nowadays, he rides on a street car; if in a hurry, he calls a taxi. He is not much of a motor enthusiast anyway. When he motors it is a business errand that he is going on.

Senator Sutherland has introduced a bill to grant an increased pension of $60 a month to Mrs. Elizabeth Coffman, of Fairmont; has filed an application for a pension increase at the Pension Bureau for Henry M. Turner, of Gratton; filed petition in the Senate signed by numerous citizens of Ritchie county protesting against the covenant of the league of nations; took up with the Pension Commissioner the matter of a decision on the pending applications of Nellie H. Collins and Kate Pennybaker, both of Parkersburg; secured refund of $40 for Edw. Gates, of Parkersburg, on account of Liberty bond he paid on while in service but did not receive.

Representative Woodyard presented in the House, and the same was referred to his committee, the committee on postoffices and post roads, a petition of postoffice clerks and letter carriers of Huntington, Sistersville, Princeton, Wellsburg, Richwood, Fairmont, Wheeling, Weston, Mannington, Hinton, Bluefield, Morgantown and Martinsburg, relating to increase in pay.

A bill to increase the pension received by John S. Kenney, of Dulin, to $72, and a similar bill for the same amount in behalf of David D. Arnold, of Burning Springs, was introduced in the Senate by Senator Elkins.

Representative Woodyard's office reports the granting of a pension at the rate of $12 a month to Mrs. Katherine J. Pennybaker, of Parkersburg, widow of Chas. R. Pennybaker, late of the U. S. S. Wilmington. The pension dates from the first inst.

James A. Vickers has been commissioned postmaster at Villa, W. Va. The office at Barnabus, Logan county, has been ordered discontinued. Star service from Freed to Lough, and from Ayers to Big Springs has been ordered discontinued.

Representative Goodykoontz has recommended the appointment of J. C. Kinsley as postmaster at Iroquois, Wyoming county; and has up with the War Risk Insurance the matter of securing additional compensation and allowances already made but never paid, for Robert W. Sims, of Hinton; Al-

THE IDEAL WOMAN

The great Napoleon once said: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation—that woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health." To attain such health in middle life a woman must guard against those ills which drag her down and produce nervousness, headache, backache, sleeplessness and the blues. The standard remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for forty five years has been restoring women to health and strength.

Demonstrator Is At Crane's Drug Store

Two Wonderful Preparations Being Demonstrated Here Now

Mr. L. H. Smith comes direct from the Golden Seal Laboratory where he has been assisting for the past few months, in the compounding and perfecting of their two new preparations, namely, Tonic Golden Seal With Iron and Gentian and Arng-Ate, which have been producing such beneficial results. Mr. Smith, being a registered pharmacist himself, knows the virtues, properties and physiological actions of drugs and prior to his connection with the Golden Seal Laboratories, has held several responsible positions as chief prescriptionist with some of the largest drug firms of the country, and is widely known in drug circles.

The two preparations that Mr. Smith is demonstrating at Crane's drug store, are strictly pharmaceutical products prepared by registered pharmacists, and are the result of many years' careful study and research on the part of the manufacturers, who have devoted the better part of their lives to the studying and compounding of thousands of physicians' prescriptions. These preparations are prepared in modern and sanitary laboratories with the utmost skill and cleanliness. You should give Tonic Golden Seal With Iron and Gentian a fair trial if you are a sufferer of indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, sour stomach, gas on stomach, heartburn, heart-flutter, intestinal catarrh, biliousness, impoverished blood, nervousness or a general run-down condition of the system.

ARNG-Ate, in an effervescent salt combined with fruit derivatives and is the most delightful, agreeable and efficient laxative and cathartic. It is far superior to Castor oil, Epsom Salts, strong gripping syrups and other noxious mixtures which tend to upset the stomach.

ARNG-Ate is indicated in constipation, bilious headache, torpid liver, fermentation, jaundice, rheumatism, faulty elimination and all other ailments caused by chronic constipation. We recommend ARNG-Ate as the most effective preparation for these ailments.

Mr. Smith will be right here in town for several weeks at Crane's drug store and will gladly explain to you the virtues of these wonderful preparations. His time is yours. Call in and see him when you are down town.

NATURE'S MIRROR

When a woman is well and healthy—there's a sparkle in her eyes, a rose tint in her cheeks, and she has rich red blood. There's elasticity in every movement and a spring in her step. Love comes to every woman who has bounding health—but when she is pallid, dull eyed, languid, she has no magnetism nor does she appeal to any man.

Such a change in feelings and looks!

After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weaknesses of her sex—with eyes sunken, black circles and pale cheeks—such a woman is quickly restored to health by the Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce. Changed, too, in looks, for after taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the skin becomes clear, the eyes brighter, the cheeks plump. It is purely vegetable, contains no alcohol.

Druggists sell it in tablets or liquid. Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y., 10c for trial package.

MILLIONS Suffer from Acid-Stomach

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their health can be traced directly to acid-stomach. Here is the reason: poor digestion means poor nourishment of the different organs and tissues of the body. The blood is impoverished—becomes weak, thin, sluggish. Ailments of many kinds spring from such conditions. Biliousness, rheumatism, indigestion, general weakness, loss of power and energy, headache, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression—even more serious ailments such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble—all of these can often be traced directly to acid-stomach. Keep a sharp lookout for the first symptoms of acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repeating, that awful painful bloating after eating, and sour, gassy stomach. EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach ills. Thousands say they never dreamed that anything could bring such speedy relief—and make them feel so much better in every way. Try EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise. When People Wait

Waiting is one of the most profitless things in the world, and waiting at the telephone is almost like sitting still with your eyes closed—the time seems so much longer.

To busy people a short wait seems magnified and correspondingly unprofitable. You can help to lessen such waits for those who call you by answering your telephone promptly, and at the same time protect yourself against lost calls—for the other person often "hangs up."
